Hubbell was living (age 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ) in 1913.
Probably is now. He is a trader & easily the best known name in Northern Arizona. In future histories of Arizona & the Navajo country this name will frequently occur.
He has spent his life here and "Hubbell's Country" is a term in common use. Any man knowing this region would recognize the appropriateness of the term. Hubbell has "made this region". I strongly recommend for historical reasons that the rule be waived and this name retained.
If new name must be chosen I suggest: Defiance
